

Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Part I Who Should Read this Book	1
Chapter 1 Who is a Rocket Scientist?	2
Chapter 2 It Doesn't Take a Rocket Scientist to Be a Rocket Scientist	3
Part II Why the Boss is Key	5
Chapter 3 It's Not About Grades	6
Chapter 4 Why the Work Place is Different from School	7
Chapter 5 The Golden Rule: Make Your Boss Look Good	9
Chapter 6 Does This Mean You Have to Kiss Butt?	10
Chapter 7 What if My Boss is Incompetent?	11
Chapter 8 Check Out Your Boss Before You Accept the Job	13
Part III How to Get the Right Job	15
Chapter 9 Why You Need Two Resumes	16
Chapter 10 Getting Your Resume to the Right Person	19
Chapter 11 What About References?	21
Chapter 12 What to Bring to the Interview	23
Chapter 13 Seek Out Enlightened Managers	25
Chapter 14 How to Negotiate Your First Job Offer	26
Part IV How to Survive in Industry	29
Chapter 15 How to Survive Your First Two Weeks on the Job	30
Chapter 16 Reinvent the Wheel	33
Chapter 17 What if the Rocket Doesn't Work?	34
Chapter 18 How to Tell Your Boss: "We've Got a Problem"	35
Chapter 19 Keep Your Boss Informed	37
Chapter 20 Reality Therapy: A Few Words About the Challenger	39
Chapter 21 Work on the Big Picture	41
Chapter 22 How to Give a Presentation to Rocket Scientists	43
Chapter 23 How to Keep Your Presentation Short and Snappy	45
Chapter 24 How to Write a Technical Report	49
Chapter 25 The Importance of Being Visible	53
Chapter 26 How to Achieve Visibility	54
Part V How to Land an Academic Position	57
Chapter 27 So You Want to be a Professor of Rocket Science	58
Chapter 28 Qualifying for the Ph.D. Program	59
Chapter 29 Why Working on Your Ph.D. is Fun	61
Chapter 30 Plan Your Academic Career Early	62
Chapter 31 How Will You Fund Your Research?	63
Chapter 32 What Should be on Your Academic Resume	65
Chapter 33 List the Courses You Could Teach	67
Chapter 34 How Not to Give an Academic Interview	69

Chapter 35	How to Prepare for an Academic Interview	71
Chapter 36	The Academic Seminar for Hire	74
Chapter 37	Expect a Long Wait	76
Chapter 38	How to Negotiate an Academic Offer	77
Part VI	How to Get Promoted in Academia	79
Chapter 39	What it Takes to Get Tenure	80
Chapter 40	Train Your Graduate Students to do Research	82
Chapter 41	How to Get Promoted and Tenured at a Higher Rank	84
Epilogue		85
About the Author		85
Recommended Reading		86